

Integration Event 4
UKUH Social Science Integration: Lessons for Net Zero

Wednesday 30 March 2022
 09:30 – 12:45
 Zoom

09:30	Professor Mike Bradshaw and Dr Jen Roberts This session is to provide an opportunity for knowledge exchange and networking beyond the UKUH programme. The session will focus on methods that we have used in this programme and how they have application beyond shale gas research. At the session, we will be joined by academics from beyond the UKUH research programmes, including experts in hydrogen, CCUS, geothermal.
9.45 (1 hour)	UKUH Lessons for net zero: governance, engagement, and trust Discussion will be led by Jen Dickie, Phil Bartie and Stacia Ryder Chair: Jen Roberts
10.45	Break (15 mins)
11.00 (1 hour)	Chaired by Professor Nick Pidgeon Lessons from Shale Gas for the public acceptance of Net Zero Leslie Mabon (CCUS), Mel Rohse (Geothermal), Emily Cox (Hydrogen) Each member given 5 mins to pitch their experience / share thoughts and experience etc. Questions from Nick and the audience.
12.00	The Social Science Net Zero Agenda Breakout session – Reflecting on the social science insights from across the UKUH programme, and the Programme itself, what do you recommend should be the focus of future ESRC funding?
12.40	Summary and Final Reflections Dr Jen Roberts
12:45	Close meeting